

YAGP 2016 Semi-finals

Austin, Texas

January 15 – January 17, 2016

Dear Participants, Parents and Teachers,

It is with great pleasure that we welcome you to the YAGP 2016 Semi-Finals in Austin, TX! We hope you will enjoy learning from each other as well as the many distinguished dance professionals gathered here. As many of you already know, we have designed the YAGP experience in such a way that every participant, regardless of their level of training or career goals, can benefit greatly from the multitude of educational and professional opportunities available throughout the event.

In response to parents' and teachers' requests from previous years, we would like to inform you that this year the competition entries are organized by birth date starting with our youngest participants. The only exceptions to this order are special considerations due to costume changes.

We are proud to say that in only 17 short years YAGP has become the largest student scholarship competition in the world. This is in large part due to the support of our participants and participating schools. In particular, we would like to thank the Austin, TX participating schools:

Judges & Teachers – YAGP 2016 Austin, TX

Diedre Miles Burger

In July 2010 she was appointed Director of Orlando Ballet School. Under her leadership Orlando Ballet School has grown and developed programming, most notably Adaptive Dance for students with Down Syndrome and the Orlando Ballet School Academy which develops young dancers for profession careers. At the 2014 Youth America Grand Prix regional semi-finals in Tampa, FL Ms. Miles Burger was awarded “Outstanding Teacher” along with Orlando Ballet Principal Teacher Olivier Munoz. In spring of 2014 under her leadership Orlando Ballet School was awarded “Outstanding School” at Youth America Grand Prix NY Finals and was named a “Certified School” of America Ballet Theatre.

Jeff Rogers

Born to a southern military family, Jeff began his dance training in Germany under former Royal Ballet Soloist Maureen Gurgun. After moving back to the U.S. He continued with Christine Parks, a former soloist with The Ballet Society, which was to become The New York City Ballet. From there he attended the SAB, Joffrey, and ABT schools under full merit scholarship and received his Bournonville training by Toni Lander, Flemming Halby, Bruce Marks, and even attended master classes given by Erik Bruhn. These last mostly influencing his teaching style and methodology.

Misha Tchoupakov

Misha Tchoupakov was also on the faculty of the Royal Ballet School, the Elmhurst School for Dance in Association with Birmingham Royal Ballet, and the English National Ballet School in the UK and served as Assistant Professor at University of Utah Department of Ballet. Mr. Tchoupakov currently with YAGP Ballet and Contemporary Dance Competition in New York as Rehearsal Director, Judge and Master Teacher and is an internationally renowned guest teacher. He joined the faculty of School of Dance at University of North Carolina School of the Arts in 2013 as Assistant Professor.

Judges & Teachers – YAGP 2016 Austin, TX

Phillip Broomhead

Phillip Broomhead joined Houston Ballet's artistic staff as ballet master after an illustrious two-decade career as a dancer. He was born in London, England, trained at The Royal Ballet School, and joined The Royal Ballet in 1981. He was promoted to soloist in 1983 and to principal in 1986. Mr. Broomhead joined Houston Ballet as a principal dancer in January of 1991 and made his debut in Ben Stevenson's Cinderella. He was featured in all of Mr. Stevenson's ballets, and many other works. He retired from Houston Ballet as a dancer in June 2004 after performing with the company for thirteen years. He has recently retired as ballet master from Houston Ballet.

Sally Rojas

Sally Rojas is a native of Caracas, Venezuela. She moved to Miami at the age of 10 and began her Ballet training with Thomas Amour, Robert Pike and Judith Reece Newman. She trained further at the School of American Ballet and American Ballet Theater. She joined ABT II at 16. Ms. Rojas joined Houston Ballet Company and danced as a Soloist until her retirement in 2004. Since her retirement she has been a leading Faculty Member of the Houston Ballet Ben Stevenson Academy.

Tara Mitton Catao

Tara Mitton Catao is a recognized educator and an award-winning choreographer. She has performed with the companies of Agnes de Mille, Paul Sanasardo, and Rudy Perez, among others. Ms. Catao has been on the faculties of the London Contemporary School of Dance, the Guts Giordano Dance Center, and the Ruth Page Foundation School of Ballet. In 1981, Ms. Catao founded the Chicago Repertory Dance Ensemble, with which she has toured around the world. In 1994 she began working at The Harid Conservatory as a resident choreographer and contemporary dance faculty member. She currently serves as the Representative of The Harid Conservatory. Tara is also a freelance writer as well as a dance critic for the Palm Beach Art Paper.
