

Las Vegas, NV (February 12-14, 2016)

The Artemus W. Ham Concert Hall is a large performance theater located on the campus of UNLV, very close to the famed Las Vegas Strip, and a short distance from the host hotel. This venue is very convenient, as all competition and workshop events take place at the campus of UNLV.

This is a great semi-final venue choice for those who are planning to fly: the theater is located just minutes away from the Las Vegas airport, with many convenient connecting flights from virtually anywhere in the country. In addition, the city offers a variety of inexpensive and conveniently located hotels and restaurants, and features entertainment options for the whole family. PLEASE NOTE that the Las Vegas semi-final will take place over Valentine's Day weekend, so we recommend making arrangements for your hotel accommodations as early in advance as possible to ensure the best rates.
