

YAGP 2015 Semi-finals

Los Angeles, CA
February 6 - 8, 2015

Dear Participants, Parents and Teachers,

It is with great pleasure that we welcome you to the YAGP 2015 Semi-Finals in Los Angeles, CA! We hope you will enjoy learning from each other as well as the many distinguished dance professionals gathered here. As many of you already know, we have designed the YAGP experience in such a way that every participant, regardless of their level of training or career goals, can benefit greatly from the multitude of educational and professional opportunities available throughout the event.

Competition entries are organized by birth date starting with our youngest participants. The only exceptions to this order are special considerations due to costume changes.

We are proud to say that in only 16 short years YAGP has become the largest student scholarship competition in the world. This is in large part due to the support of our participants and participating schools. In particular, we would like to thank the Los Angeles, CA participating schools:

He won the Gold Medal at the New York International Ballet Competition in 1987 and the Grand Prix at the International Ballet Competition in Jackson, Mississippi in 1990. He has appeared extensively in Europe, Latin America and the United States. Carreño joined the English National Ballet in 1990. Carreño joined The Royal Ballet as a principal dancer in 1993. Carreño joined American Ballet Theatre as a Principal Dancer in June 1995. Mr. Carreño is the founder and Artistic Director of the CARRENO DANCE FESTIVAL & Summer Intensive, and the current Artistic Director of the San Jose Ballet.

Peter LeBreton Merz

Peter Merz choreographed his first ballet for Dayton Ballet II at the age of 12, beginning a lifelong fascination with dance. In addition to studying at the School of the Dayton Ballet, Merz studied at the San Francisco Ballet School, The Washington Ballet and the Brooklyn Ballet School. He danced with the Louisville Ballet and the Cincinnati Ballet, and also taught in the Cincinnati Ballet's Academy and at the School for Creative and Performing Arts in Cincinnati. In 2002, Merz served as the artistic administrator for the USA International Ballet Competition in Jackson, Miss. In 2004, Merz joined the faculty of Point Park, where he is an associate professor of dance and head of ballet.

Monique Meunier

Ms. Meunier was born in Hollywood, CA. At the age of 15 she received a full scholarship to attend the School of American Ballet where she trained with Suki Schorer, Violette Verdi, and Kay Mazzo. One year later she joined the NYCB, in 1997 she was promoted to soloist and in 1998 to Principal Dancer. She is a Repetiteur for the Balanchine Trust. She was named Ballet Mistress to Washington Ballet in 2010 and Director of the Trainee program in 2011. She is now Co-Director of the Nevada Ballet Theatre.

Alexei Moskalenko

A former dancer with the famed Bolshoi Ballet, Mr. Moskalenko has also had 20+ years of teaching experience in classical ballet, technique, pointe technique, men's ballet technique, variations, pas de deux contemporary dance, character dance, and choreography. He is committed to delivering excellence in dance training and education through the Russian Vaganova Method while also adapting to each student's individual needs and abilities. He has a proven record in advising and guiding students through career options and choices, and has mentored students who have continued their dance training at colleges, universities, and professional companies. Mr. Moskalenko also holds the distinct honor of being the New York Director of Rehearsals Master Teacher, Judge, and Tour Director for the world's largest ballet scholarship competition – the Youth America Grand Prix.

Philip Neal

After a 23-year tenure with New York City Ballet, 17 years as a Principal Dancer, Philip Neal currently is a Repetiteur for the George Balanchine Trust and the Jerome Robbins Rights Trust, staging the ballets of those legendary choreographers throughout the world. He has also successfully embarked on his own choreographic ventures, having crafted five original commissions for Richmond Ballet and participated in both the New York Choreographic Institute and the National Choreographers Initiative. Neal is a guest instructor for numerous dance companies and schools, including Boston Ballet, Joffrey Ballet, Miami City Ballet, Pacific Northwest Ballet and the School of American Ballet.

Rubinald Rofino Pronk

Rubinald Pronk was born and raised in The Hague and trained at the Royal (Dutch) Conservatory of Dance, Mr. Pronk joined the Dutch National Ballet at age 16 and was promoted to soloist. Rubinald performed works by choreographers including Sir Frederick Ashton, George Balanchine, William Forsythe, Jacopo Godani and Martha Graham. In 2006 he joined Dwight Rhoden and Desmond Richardson's Complexions Contemporary Ballet, performing works by Rhoden and Ulysses Dove. This is his first year adjudicating for the Youth America Grand Prix.

Sascha Radetsky

Sascha Radetsky received his early dance training from Dmara Bennett and Ayako Takahashi. At the age of 15 he was invited to attend the Bolshoi Academy in Moscow and the next year he joined the Kirov Academy of Ballet in St. Petersburg. He joined American Ballet Theatre in 1995 and was made a soloist in 2003. He starred in the 2000 movie Center Stage. In 2008 he joined Dutch National Ballet as a Principal dancer. He returned to ABT in 2010. He currently stars in the Starz TV Series "Flesh and Bone".

Stephanie Saland

Stephanie Saland was born in Brooklyn, and entered The School of American Ballet at age 15. Three years later she was invited by George Balanchine to join the New York City Ballet and in her 21-year career with the company, she was showcased in leading roles under Balanchine's direction, as well as principal roles in Jerome Robbins' repertoire. Guest performances included "Nureyev and Friends," "Giselle" with Alexander Gudonov and numerous "Live From Lincoln Center" and "Dance in America" films. Since finishing her performance career in 1993, Ms. Saland has been a freelance instructor, traveling to teach in New York, New Jersey, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Kansas City, Buenos Aires, Copenhagen, Madrid and Mallorca.

John Selya

John Selya was born in New York City and studied at the School of American Ballet. In his final year, Mr. Selya received the prestigious Mae L. Wien Award for Outstanding Promise. Mr. Selya was invited by Mikhail Baryshnikov to join American Ballet Theatre, where he performed featured roles in both the classical and contemporary repertoires. While at A.B.T., he also choreographed two works for the company: "Moondance" and "Disposition". In 1999, Mr. Selya joined forces with Twyla Tharp to form Twyla Tharp Dance. He was chosen to create and perform in Tharp's Tony award winning Broadway musical "Movin' Out". Mr. Selya was awarded the Fred Astaire prize, a TONY award nomination, and a Theater World Award.
