On January 17-19th, hundreds of dancers from the San Diego area will compete in the Youth America Grand Prix semi finals for a chance to be seen by the best dance companies in the world.

Winners will travel to New York in April for the final round of competition where 300 of the most promising young dancers representing 30 countries on 5 continents are chosen for the New York City Finals.

The general public is invited to attend the Semi-Final competition. Tickets are free for anyone under 21 years old or $5 cash at the door for adults over 21. The workshops are not open to the public.

Youth America Grand Prix (YAGP) is America's first and the world's largest student ballet scholarship competition. Conducted through annual regional competitions throughout the U.S and abroad, YAGP is a global network of opportunity connecting dancers, teachers, schools, and companies all over the globe.

Each year, YAGP culminates with a Final Round in New York City and a Gala performance. Founded in 1999 by former Bolshoi Ballet Dancers, Larissa and Gennadi Saveliev, 25,000 young dancers have participated in YAGP worldwide competitions and workshops, over 2 million dollars have been awarded in scholarships to leading dance schools, and over 250 YAGP alumni are now dancing with 50 companies, including American Ballet Theatre, New York City Ballet, Paris Opera Ballet, Eifman Ballet of St. Petersburg, and many others.
