Important Information

ABOUT THE VENUE

All competition events will take place in Nanterre – a secure suburb near Paris, located 20 minutes – and 6 RER stops – away from the city center (Châtelet – Les Halles). The competition will take place at the Theatre Andre Malraux, in a picturesque neighborhood, with several great dining options in the area. There is a studio onsite at the Theater, which will be used mostly for warm-ups and occasional classes throughout the weekend. The master classes will take place at the Studios of the Paris Opera Ballet School - giving our participants a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to take classes inside the state-of-the-art facilities of the oldest and one of the most prestigious ballet schools in the world - just 3 short RER stops away from the Theater (6 minutes). YAGP is proud to be the first outside organization to which Paris Opera Ballet School opened its doors in its 300+ year history. The YAGP Paris Semi-Final is run in the similar structure as our New York City Finals - with a Final Round, and scholarship classes held throughout the weekend. As a result, a substantial amount of scholarships are awarded at this semi-final. There are several hotel options to choose from, located either within walking distance from the studios, or from the theatre, and a train station is a few stops away from the studios.
